UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

11 HONEYWELL INTERNATIONAL INC., a
12 Delaware corporation; INTERMEC, INC., a
13 Delaware corporation; and INTERMEC
14 TECHNOLOGIES CORPORATION, a
Washington corporation,

15 Plaintiffs,

16 DR. PAUL MALTSEFF, f/k/a Pavel Maltsev,
17 an individual,

18 Defendants.

19 No. 2:14-cv-00283-JLR
20
21

22 STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

23 NOTE ON MOTION CALENDAR:
(same day/date)

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

2 Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of trade secrets, confidential,
3 proprietary, or private information for which special protection may be warranted.
4

5 Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the following
6 Stipulated Protective Order. Any party to this action or non-party from which information is 7 sought may designate information as Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only as provided in this 8 Order. The parties acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not 9 confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it affords 10 from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are 11 entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not 12 presumptively entitle parties to file confidential or attorneys eyes' only information under 13 seal, and it allows for challenges of any unnecessary or unreasonable designations by any 14 party. The parties' agreement to this Order cannot be used or admitted into evidence for any 15 purpose in any legal proceeding except to enforce the terms of the Order.
16

17 2. "CONFIDENTIAL" MATERIAL

18 "Confidential" material shall include the following documents and tangible things 19 produced or otherwise exchanged: personnel, human resources, and similar information
20 related to defendant Paul Maltseff or any other individual; internal or personal 21 communications, and other documents that the designating party in good faith believes cannot 22 be used outside the context of this litigation.
23

1 3. ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY MATERIAL

2 “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” material shall include documents and tangible things that 3 constitute or contain trade secrets, proprietary information, financial data, information that is 4 competitively sensitive, or other information that the designating party in good faith believes
5 requires the additional special handling required by the “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” designation.

6 4. SCOPE

7 The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material
8 (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential
9 material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3)
10 any testimony, conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal
11 confidential material. However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover 12 information that is in the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or 13 otherwise.

14 5. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL AND ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY
15 MATERIAL

16 5.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is 17 disclosed or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for 18 prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material and 19 Attorneys’ Eyes Only material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under 20 the conditions described in this agreement. Confidential and Attorneys’ Eyes Only material 21 must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner that 22 ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

5.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or permitted in writing by the designating party or designating non-party, a receiving party may disclose any confidential material only to:

(a) the receiving party's counsel of record in this action, outside counsel for Datalogic ADC, Inc. who appeared in response to Plaintiffs' subpoena (James H. Shalek and Jonathan M. Sharret of Proskauer Rose LLP), as well as employees of counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

(b) the officers, directors, and employees (including in-house counsel) of the receiving party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation;

(c) experts and consultants and their support staff to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(d) the Court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

(e) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication of confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to immediately return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

(f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or designating non-party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to

1 depositions that reveal confidential material must be separately bound by the court reporter
2 and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this agreement;

3 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 4 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

5 (h) Paul Maltseff.

6 5.3 Disclosure of “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Information or Items. Unless 7 otherwise ordered by the Court or permitted in writing by the designating party or designating 8 non-party, a receiving party may disclose any Attorneys’ Eyes Only material only to:

9 (a) the receiving party’s counsel of record in this action, outside counsel
10 for Datalogic ADC, Inc. who appeared in response to Plaintiffs’ subpoena (James H. Shalek 11 and Jonathan M. Sharret of Proskauer Rose LLP), as well as employees of counsel to whom it 12 is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

13 (b) experts and consultants and their support staff to whom disclosure is 14 reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and 15 Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

16 (c) the Court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

17 (d) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication 18 of attorneys’ eyes only material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or 19 imaging service instructs the service not to disclose any attorneys’ eyes only material to third 20 parties and to immediately return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

21 (e) Paul Maltseff.

1 5.4 Before individuals under subparagraphs 5.2(c) and 5.3(b) may have access to 2 Confidential or Attorneys Eyes Only Information, the party receiving the Confidential or 3 Attorneys Eyes Only Information must submit to the party producing the Confidential or 4 Attorneys Eyes Only Information the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound”
5 (Exhibit A hereto), and the retained expert’s or consultant’s curriculum vitae setting forth his 6 or her name, address, qualifications, and relevant work experience. Relevant work experience
7 includes, but is not limited to, the last five years of employment, any existing consulting
8 relationships, any consulting done in the last five years, and any experience as an expert
9 witness. In addition, the party seeking to qualify the expert or consultant shall state any and 10 all past connections between any party and the proposed expert or consultant, except where 11 disclosure is prohibited by court order. If the producing party does not object in writing 12 within ten (10) business days from delivery of the Acknowledgement, Confidential and 13 Attorneys’ Eyes Only Information may then be disclosed to the retained expert or consultant.
14 If objection is made within ten (10) business days of delivery of the Acknowledgement, the 15 parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve the disclosure issue. If the issue cannot be 16 resolved promptly, the producing party has five (5) business days from delivery of the 17 objection to bring a motion to preclude the retained expert or consultant from viewing the 18 producing party’s Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only Information. If the producing party
19 does not bring such a timely motion, Confidential and Attorneys’ Eyes Only Information may 20 be disclosed to the retained expert or consultant.
21

23 5.5 Filing Confidential and Attorneys Eyes Only Material. Before filing 24 confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only material or discussing or referencing such material in 25
26

1 court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party or designating non-party
2 to determine whether the designating party or designating non-party will remove the 3 confidential designation, whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion to seal
4 or stipulation and proposed order is warranted. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the 5 procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks 6 permission from the court to file material under seal.

7

8. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

9

10. 6.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each 11 party or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must 12 take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate
13 standards. The designating party or designating non-party must designate for protection only 14 those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so 15 that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection
16 is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

18. Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 19 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 20 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary 21 expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party or designating non-party 22 to sanctions.

24. If it comes to the attention of a designating party's or of a designating non-party that 25 information or items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, the 26

1 designating party or designating non-party must promptly notify all other parties that it is 2 withdrawing the mistaken designation.

3 6.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 4 Order (see, e.g., section 6.2(b)), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, disclosure or discovery
5 material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated before or 6 when the material is disclosed or produced.

7 (a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents
8 and deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial
9 proceedings), the designating party or designating non-party must affix the words 10 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” to each page that contains 11 confidential material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for 12 protection, the producing party or producing non-party also must clearly identify the protected 13 portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

14 (b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings:
15 the parties must identify on the record, during the deposition, hearing, or other proceeding, all 16 protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other testimony after 17 reviewing the transcript. Any party may, within five (5) business days after receiving a 18 deposition transcript, designate portions of the transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential or 19 Attorneys’ Eyes Only.

20 (c) Other tangible items: the producing party or producing non-party must 21 affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the 22 information or item is stored the word “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of 23

1 the information or item warrant protection, the producing party or producing non-party, to the 2 extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

3 6.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 4 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the right of the 5 designating party or designating non-party to secure protection under this agreement for such 6 material. Upon timely correction of a designation, the receiving party must make reasonable
7 efforts to ensure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

8 7. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

9 7.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party may challenge a designation of Attorney's
10 Eyes Only or Confidential at any time. Such challenge must be made in writing. A party 11 does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a 12 challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

13 7.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute
14 regarding confidential designations without Court involvement, and must do so within three 15 (3) business days of any challenge. The parties may agree to extend this time. Any motion 16 regarding confidential designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in 17 the motion or in a declaration or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet-18 and-confer conference with other affected parties and/or non-parties in an effort to resolve the 19 dispute without Court action. The certification must list the date, manner, and participants to 20 the conference. A good faith effort to confer requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone 21 conference.

1 7.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge among 2 themselves within five (5) business days of delivery of the written objection, any party or 3 non-party that participated in the conference required by Section 7.2 may file and serve a
 4 motion to resolve the challenge under Local Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil 5 Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden of persuasion in any such motion shall be on the 6 designating party or designating non-party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an 7 improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other 8 parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall continue to maintain 9 the material in question as confidential until the Court rules on the challenge.

10 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN 11 OTHER LITIGATION

12 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that 13 compels disclosure of any information or items designated by another party or non-party in 14 this action as “CONFIDENTIAL” or ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY, that party must:

15 (a) promptly notify the designating party or designating non-party in 16 writing and include a copy of the subpoena or court order;
 17 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order 18 to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or 19 order is subject to this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; 20 and
 21 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be 22 pursued by the designating party or designating non-party whose confidential material may be 23 affected.

1. 9. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

2. If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed
3. Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only material to any person or in any circumstance not
4. authorized under this agreement, the receiving party must immediately (a) notify in writing
5. the designating party or designating non-party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best
6. efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material, (c) inform the person or
7. persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this agreement, and
8. (d) request that such person or persons execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be
9. Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

10. 10. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE
11. PROTECTED MATERIAL; NON-WAIVER

12. 10.1 Inadvertent Production of Privileged Or Otherwise Protected Material – When
13. a producing party or producing non-party gives notice to receiving parties that certain
14. inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the
15. obligations of the receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
16. 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established
17. in an e-discovery order or agreement that provides for production without prior privilege
18. review. Parties shall confer on an appropriate non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502.

19. 10.2 Non-Waiver – The parties, and/or any non-party subject to this Order may
20. agree that to the extent certain trade secret or confidential information produced by plaintiffs
21. may be privileged, that the production by plaintiff of such information shall not constitute a
22. waiver of any privilege with respect to the information produced, the subject matter of the 23. 24. 25. 26. 27. 28.

1 information produced, or in any other way. In the event of such an agreement, the Court shall 2 enter an Order consistent with the agreement.
 3

4 11. PATENT PROSECUTION BAR

5 Information designated Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only (collectively "Protected
 6 Information") under this Order shall not, absent written consent from the party producing the 7 Protected Information, be disclosed to any person who is directly involved in preparing or 8 prosecuting patent applications related to the subject matter of this litigation (including but 9 not limited to optical code reading, barcode reading, printing of optical codes/barcodes, 10 dimensioning, RFID, and/or mobile computing insofar as the mobile computing is directed to 11 reading and processing optical codes, bar codes, and/or RFID or to components of mobile
 12 computing involving battery recharging, wireless communication, interface features, and data 13 processing, but mobile computing shall not include mobile computing related to cell phones), 14 whether as an inventor, counsel of record before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office or any 15 foreign patent office, or as an advisor regarding claiming prosecution strategies (hereafter 16 "Patent Prosecution Activities"). For purposes of this paragraph, "Patent Prosecution 17 Activities" includes directly or indirectly drafting, amending, advising, or otherwise affecting 18 the scope or maintenance of patent claims (but this limitation is not intended to apply to a 19 personal representation of a party in any patent lawsuit or to prosecution activities in 20 connection with any patent reexamination request). To avoid any doubt, "Patent Prosecution 21 Activities" as used in this paragraph does not include representing a party challenging a patent 22 before a domestic or foreign agency (including, but not limited to, a reissue protest, ex parte 23 reexamination, inter partes review, post grant review, or inter partes reexamination). Further,
 24
 25
 26
 27
 28

1 any person who receives Protected Information shall not engage in Patent Prosecution
2 Activities for a period of one year after final termination of this action (including resolution of 3 any appeals arising out of this action); provided, however, that (1) this disqualification shall 4 not be imputed to partners, associates, or other colleagues of such individual who did not
5 access Protected Information; and (2) if any person who has received Protected Information
6 certifies in writing that he/she has returned or destroyed all Protected Information materials in 7 his/her possession and that he/she will no longer access, use, or disclose Protected
8 Information for any reason, he/she may engage in Patent Prosecution. Nothing in this 9 Prosecution Bar, or in this Order, shall prohibit Paul Maltseff from continuing with patent
10 prosecution activity and his current activities on behalf of Datalogic.

13 12. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

14 Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each 15 receiving party must return all confidential and attorneys' eyes only material to the producing 16 party or producing non-party, including all copies, extracts and summaries thereof.

17 Alternatively, the parties may agree upon appropriate methods of destruction.

18 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all
19 documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence,
20 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney notes and work product, and consultant
21 and expert work product, even if such materials contain confidential material.

22 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until 23 a designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.

24 IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.
25
